

Butterfly Information

The following is a list of plants that will attract local butterflies to your garden. Follow our basic outline below, and you will have a yard full of beautiful butterflies to enjoy.

Caterpillar Food – Host Plants

Butterfly: Food Source:

Monarch	Milkweed
Queen	Milkweed
Black Swallowtail	Parsley, Dill, Fennel and Rue
Giant Swallowtail	Citrus
Pipevine Swallowtail	Dutchman's Pipevine
Polydamus Swallowtail	Dutchman's Pipevine
Tiger Swallowtail	Sweet Bay Magnolia
Gulf Fritillary	Passionvine planted in sun
Zebra Longwing	Passionvine planted in shade
Orange-barred Sulphur	Cassia
Cloudless Sulphur	Cassia
White Peacock	Mexican Petunia

Butterfly Food – Nectar Plants

Pentas (They love red)	Fire Bush
Lantana	Porterweed
Coral Honeysuckle	Tropical Sage
Butterfly Bush	Mexican Heather
Firecracker Plant	Mexican Petunia
Plumbago	Golden Dew Drop

A Basic Outline For Designing Your Garden

- Choose a sunny location
- Include nectar plants to attract the butterflies
- Include host plants for the butterflies to lay their eggs
- Use large splashes of color like red and yellow
- Do not use pesticides in or near your butterfly garden
- Enjoy watching the butterflies!