

Sales Area Leader

Greenhouse, Tropicals, and Houseplants

If you love being out in the open air and helping customers find the perfect plants for their home or garden, then a job on the Kerby's Sales Team might be for you.

This job opening is for someone to lead our greenhouse department, which includes landscape tropicals, herbs, veggies, succulents, orchids, and houseplants. Job responsibilities include maintaining and merchandising inventory, connecting with growers to source the highest quality plant material and meeting sales goals for your department. The best part? You get to do it all in the great outdoors.

Qualities We Look For:

- You consistently go above and beyond what is expected of you
- You're friendly and personable - you enjoy meeting new people & delivering great customer service
- You're in good shape and energetic - not afraid of hard physical work and a challenge
- You're dependable and hardworking - you want to be part of a great culture of like-minded, fun people
- You're a good communicator, problem-solver, and very organized
