

Cat-Friendly Plants

The following list is alphabetized by common name and includes plants verified by the ASPCA to be non-toxic to cats.

Common Name	Scientific Name
African Daisy	Osteospermum spp.
African Violet	Saintpaulia spp.
Areca Palm	Dypsis lutescens
Bamboo Palm, Parlor Palm	Chamaedorea spp.
Banana, Plantain	Musa spp.
Basil	Ocimum basilicum
Boston Fern	Nephrolepis spp.
Bottlebrush	Callistemon spp.
Calathea	Calathea spp.
Camellia	Camellia japonica
Canna Lily	Canna spp.
Celosia	Celosia spp.
Christmas Cactus	Schlumbergera bridgesii
Christmas Palm	Veitchia merrillii
Climbing Star Jasmine	Trachelospermum jasminoides
Club Moss	Selaginella kraussiana
Coreopsis	Coreopsis spp.
Crape Myrtle	Lagerstroemia indica
Creeping Charlie	Pilea nummulariifolia
Crossandra	Crossandra spp.
Dill	Anethum graveolens
Echeveria succulent	Echeveria glauca
False Aralia	Dizygotheca elegantissima
Fennel	Foeniculum vulgare
Fuchsia	Fuchsia spp.
Garden Sage	Salvia officinalis
Gerbera Daisy	Gerbera jamesonii
Haworthia succulent	Haworthia spp.
Heuchera	Heuchera sanguinea
Hoya	Hoya spp.
Ice Plant	Lampranthus piquet
Impatiens	Impatiens spp.
Ixora	Ixora spp.

 This list was compiled from the ASPCA website on plants and is intended to be informative only. If you happen to have a pet that loves to eat plants, please keep in mind that these non-toxic plants may still cause minor illness and digestive upset. Please consult a veterinarian if you have questions on specific plants or if you experience a pet with illness caused by any plants.

Japanese Aralia	Fatsia japonica
Jasmine	Jasminum spp.
Lady Palm	Rhapis flabelliformis
Lemon Balm	Melissa officinalis
Liriope, Aztec Grass	Liriope muscari
Maple Tree	Acer rubrum
Marigold	Calendula officinalis
Mulberry	Morus spp.
Neoregalia Bromeliad	Neoregalia spp.
Norfolk Island Pine	Araucaria heterophylla
Orchid	Orchidaceae
Pampas Grass	Cortaderia selloana
Peacock Ginger	Kaempferia spp.
Persian Violet	Exacum affine
Petunia	Petunia spp.
Pincushion Flower	Leucospermum incisum
Pine	Pinus spp.
Pittosporum	Pittosporum tobira
Ponytail Palm	Beaucarnea recurvata, Nolina tuberculata
Pygmy Date Palm	Phoenix robellinii
Reed Orchid	Epidendrum ibaguense
Rose of Sharon	Hibiscus syriacus
Rosemary	Rosmarinus officinalis
Rose	Rosa spp.
Sedum	Sedum morganianum
Snapdragon	Antirrhinum multiflorum
Spider Flower	Cleome hassleriana
Squash, Cucumber, Melon, Pumpkin, Gourd	Cucumis, cucurbita spp.
Staghorn Fern	Platycerium bifurcatum
Stevia	Stevia rebaudiana
Strawberry	Fragaria spp.
Sweet Potato Vine	Ipomoea batatas
Sweet Viburnum	Viburnum odoratissimum
Sycamore	Platanus occidentalis
Thyme	Thymus vulgaris
Tree Cactus, Prickly Pear	Opuntia spp.
Tropical Sage	Salvia coccinea
White Ginger	Hedychium coronarium
Zinnia	Zinnia spp.

 This list was compiled from the ASPCA website on plants and is intended to be informative only. If you happen to have a pet that loves to eat plants, please keep in mind that these non-toxic plants may still cause minor illness and digestive upset. Please consult a veterinarian if you have questions on specific plants or if you experience a pet with illness caused by any plants.